

THE PHILADELPHIA CRICKET CLUB

Historical. Classic. Distinguished.

Philadelphia is one of the great golf centers in the United States and at its heart is the Philadelphia Cricket Club, the only club in the United States with a different golf course constructed in each of the last three centuries.

Read more about the club's history here.

WISSAHICKON

In 1920, the Club commissioned one of its members, the renowned A.W. Tillinghast, to create a golf course in Flourtown. Now known as Wissahickon, this Tillinghast course shows the work of a design genius at the height of his abilities. The course opened for play in 1922. In 2013-2014, the course underwent a complete restoration. Playing Wissahickon as Tillinghast envisioned it is sure to provide a world class experience. CyberGolf provides an excellent glimpse into playing this new “king” of a golf course. Golf.com ranked The Philadelphia Cricket Club as the 2014 Best Restoration of the Year.

Golfweek featured the restoration in their June 2014 issue and then ranked Wissahickon as the #29 Classic Course in the country in their 2018 rankings. In 2019, Andy Johnson published an in-depth look at Wissahickon. LINKS Magazine columnist Graylyn Loomis and The Fried Egg's Andy Johnson have published incredible reviews of the Wissahickon course along with the entire club which exemplified his experience at the facility. The PGA of America selected Wissahickon to host the 48th PGA Professional National Championship in 2015. The PGA Tour selected Wissahickon to host the 2016 Constellation Senior Players Championship, won by World Golf Hall of Fame member, Bernhard Langer. In 2019, GolfWeek ranked Wissahickon as the 5th “Best Course in Pennsylvania”. Also in 2017, Golf.com moved Wissahickon inside of its Top 100 U.S. rankings at #86 in the country. In addition, Wissahickon also played host to the 2016 Philadelphia PGA Championship, the 2017 Golf Association of Philadelphia Amateur Championship, the 2019 Men's BIG 10 Championship, and will host the 2021 Pennsylvania Open.

View more photographs of the Wissahickon here

MILITIA HILL

The Club was proud to open a second championship eighteen-hole course in 2002 designed by Dr. Michael Hurdzan and Dana Fry. Adjacent to the Wissahickon course, it is named Militia Hill as it overlooks an area steeped in Revolutionary War history. The golf course hosted the 2003 and 2004 Philadelphia Section PGA Championship and the 2004 Philadelphia Amateur Championship. The golf course was meant to distinguish the new eighteen holes in a way that would complement the older course, but not clash with it.

Militia Hill has also been ranked as high as #21 in the state of Pennsylvania by Golfweek Magazine.

View more photographs of the golf course and our Militia Hill facilities here.

Photos courtesy of Evan Schiller